Dear Mr Alston:

Your wire recieved, confirming the date of Monday April 6th. for The Newark Eagles to play the local team in Durham N.C. The Eagles to receive 40% of the gross receipts, and two meals for the team.

You asked me to send placards and take the cost out of the receipts. I cannot have the placards made without the name of the local team, the name of the park, location, and prices of admission. Today is March 19th. The game is to be played two weeks from next Monday. If the cards are to be made and sent to you from my man in Philadelphia, you will have to get this information to me by return mail via. Airmail.

Mr Manley is now in the south, and you may see him. If you two have talked and made any other arrangements, just disregard this letter.

Very Truly Yours
